

ARE YOU IN CONTROL???

77% of Parkview patients 18 through 85 years of age who had a diagnosis of hypertension were adequately controlled (< 140/90 mmHg) in 2016.

Parkview is above the 80th percentile according to Medicare.

Parkview HTN data sourced from PQRS 2016 INDV measure 236.

Please speak to your care team to ensure your blood pressure is properly controlled!

Are you over 65?

Have you had your Pneumococcal vaccine?

73% of eligible Parkview patients received their Pneumococcal vaccine in 2016 compared to the national average Pneumococcal vaccination rate of 53.5% as reported by Medicare.

Parkview vaccination data sourced from PQRS 2016 INDV measure 111.

Please speak to your care team to ensure you are properly protected against Pneumonia.

Have you recently been discharged from an inpatient facility?

85% of Parkview Medical Group patients, 18 years and older, who were discharged from an inpatient facility in 2016 had their outpatient medical record reconciled with a discharge medication list.

Parkview medication reconciliation data sourced from PQRS 2016 INDV measure 046

To get an accurate record of your medications, please bring your medication bottles with you to your appointment.

Please speak to your care team to ensure that your current medications are properly documented.

 MONOCACY HEALTH PARTNERS
PARKVIEW MEDICAL GROUP

Monocacy Health Partners – Parkview Medical Group conducts patient surveys throughout the year through Health Stream. Data on the following measures are collected and shared with our patients and the public to increase communication and awareness. We strive to provide the best experience and quality care for every patient every time

The following reflects the percentage of our patients who scored a 9 or 10 out of 10 in the following categories

Clear Communication 87.7%

Provider Listened carefully 84.6%

Courtesy/Respect of clerk and receptionists 90.6%

Data Range:
October-December 2016